

All animals have the right to these 5 freedoms

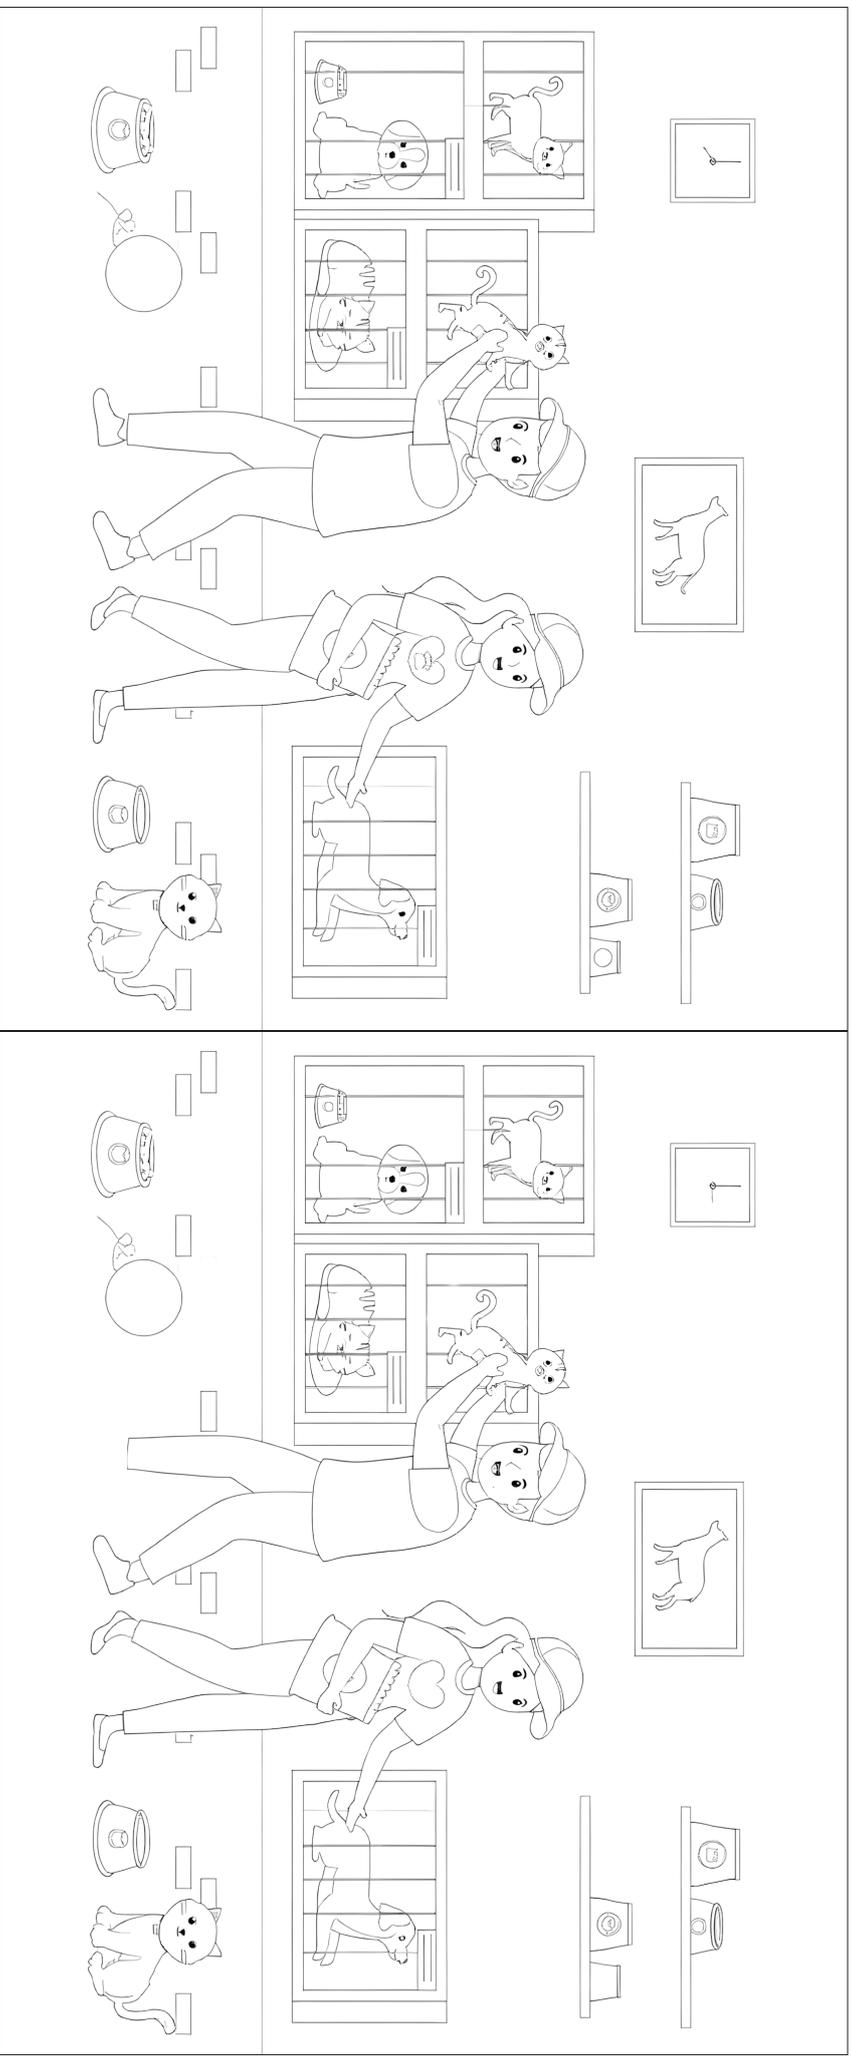

Can you name them and add them to the correct image below?

Spot the difference

Can you spot the 10 differences between the two pictures?

Me and my pet

Please draw a picture of you and your pet.

Complete the picture

Can you complete the right side of the picture to form the whole complete image of the dog and his house?

Taking care of my pet

Complete the sentences.

Need help, go to : www.bloemfonteinspca.co.za/pet-care

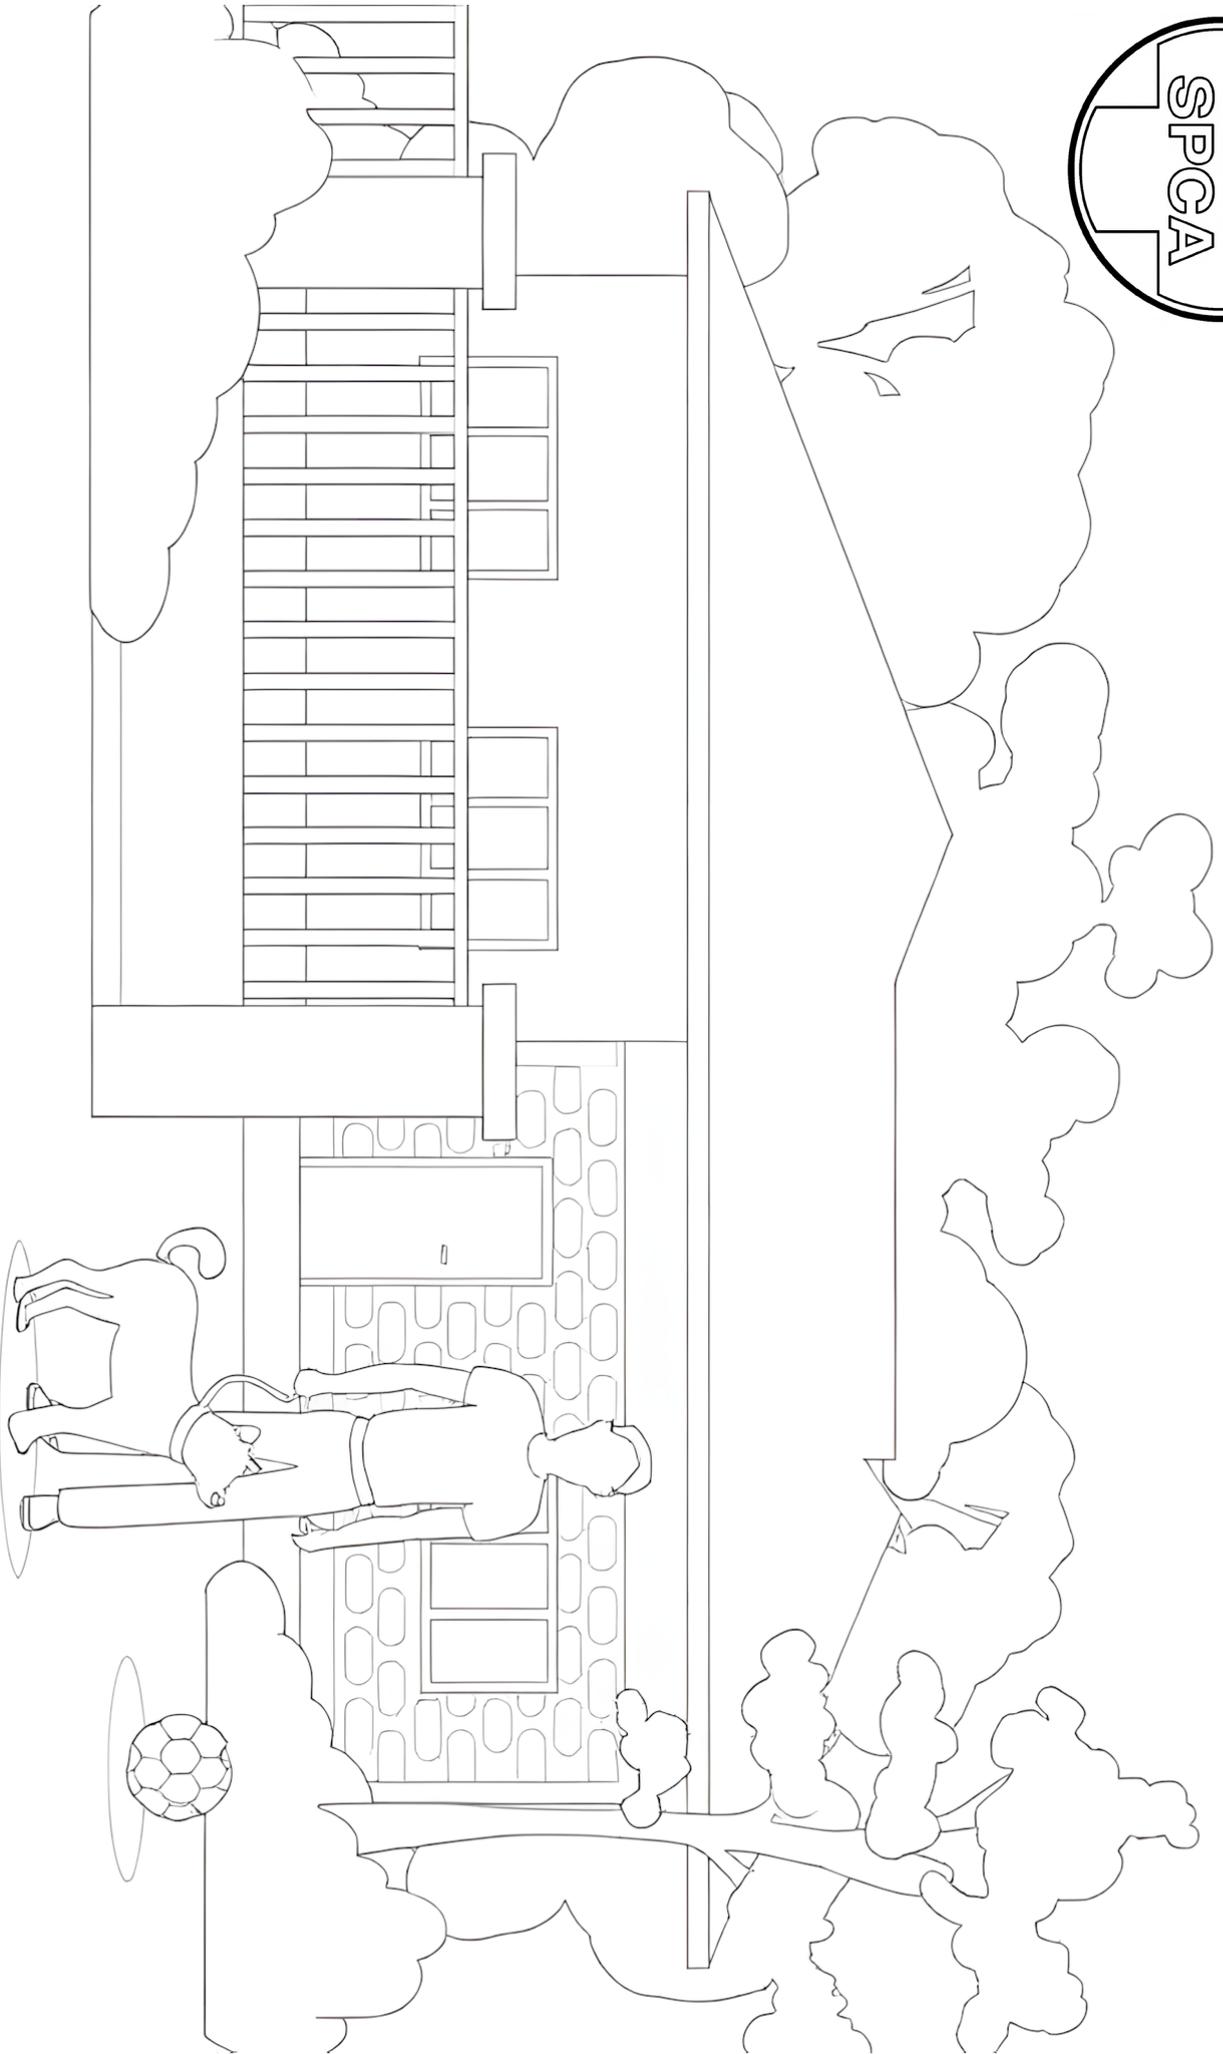

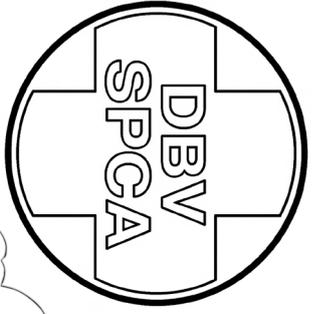

Cats are carnivores which means they need to eat mainly _____.

Cats should not eat dog food or drink _____, but they need fresh water daily. Did you know, cats don't like to drink water where they _____?

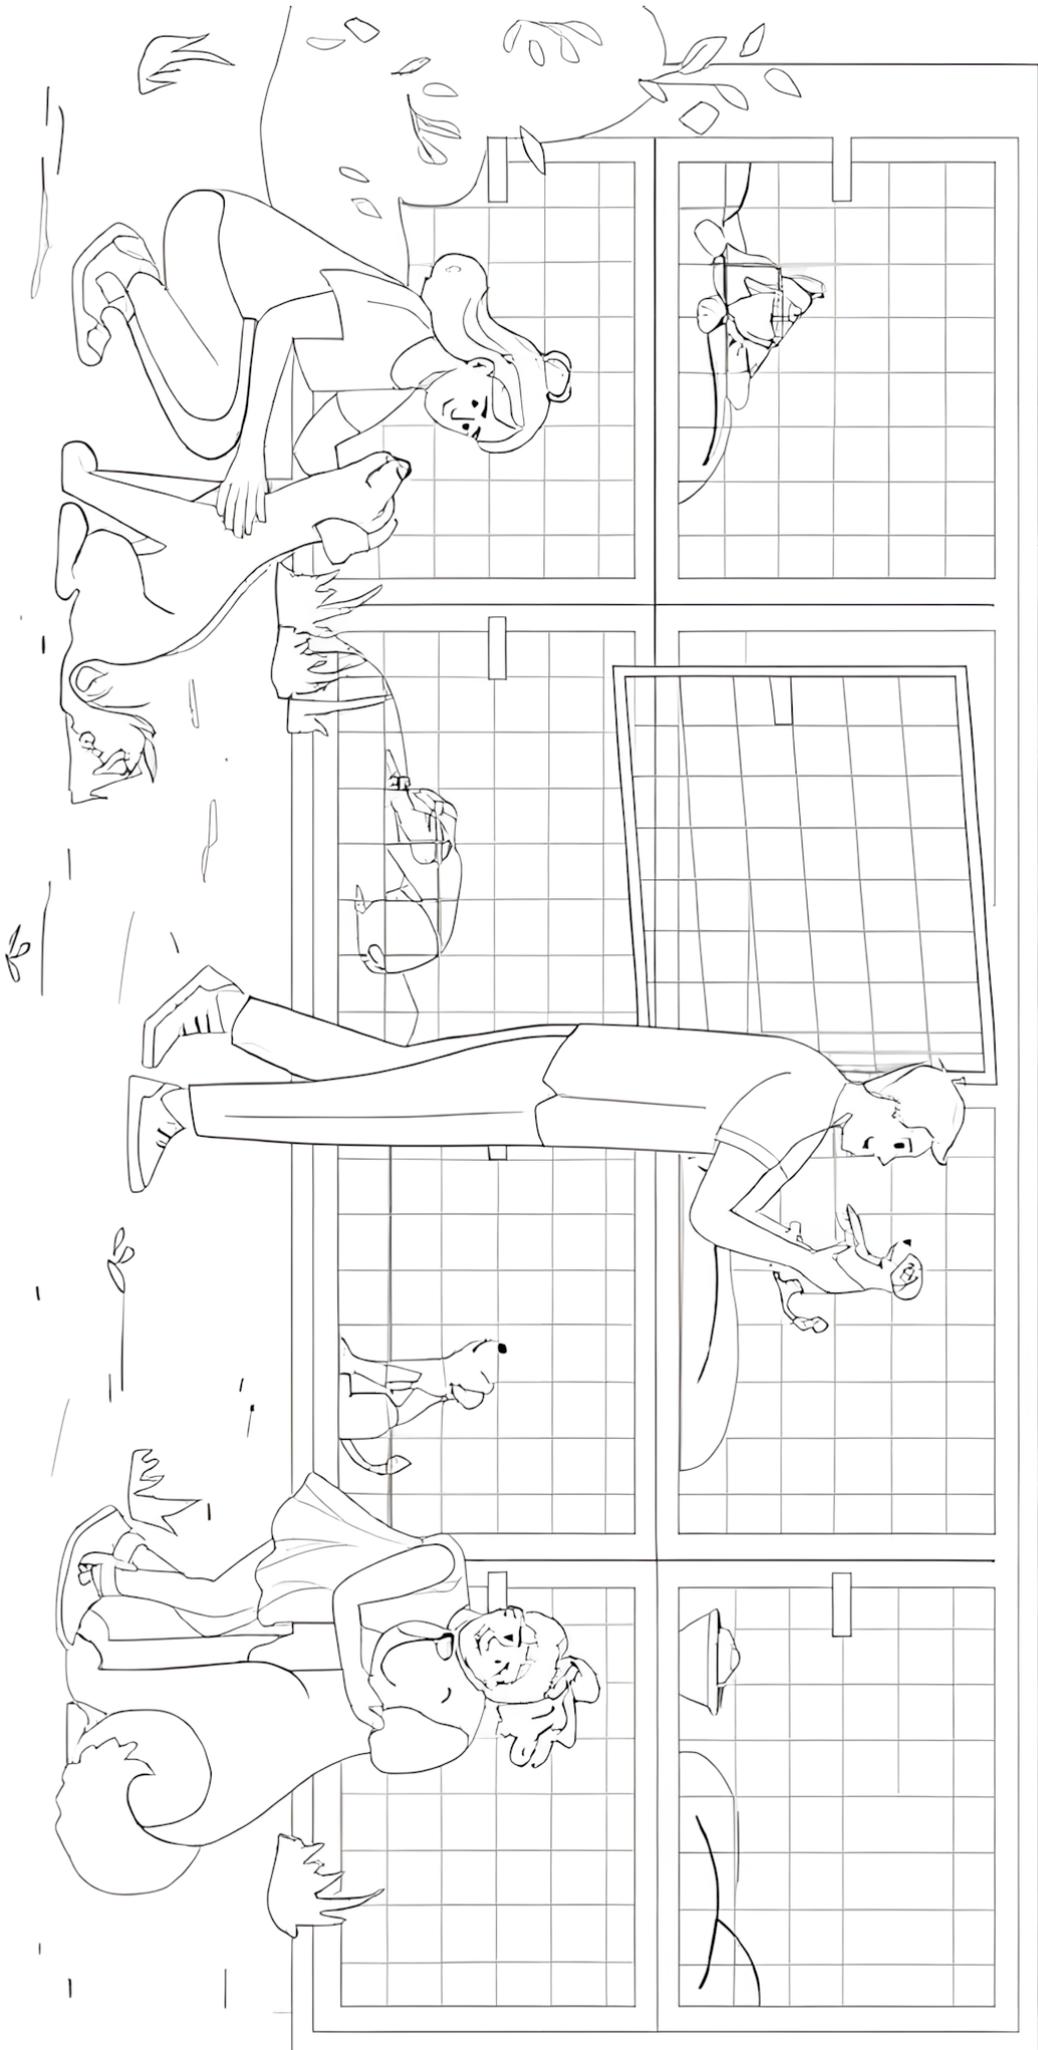

Cats are _____ and therefore like interactive toys like teaser wands or a playing mouse. A cat must visit the vet regularly to check their ears, _____, and coat for signs of illness or parasites. A cat likes their litter to be in quiet, private area, and my responsibility is to _____ the litter daily.

Cats can start having kittens from 4 months old, and have three or even more litters per year. If she gets 12 kittens per litter, that is 36 kittens per year! To prevent this overpopulation and related health issues, it's important to get your cat _____.

Dogs need food appropriate for their age, size, and _____. Some food can be harmful for your dog, like _____, onions, grapes, raisins, cooked bones, and anything that can splinter. It is important to mentally stimulate your dog with things like puzzle feeders, chew toys, and training games to prevent _____ and behavioural issues. Dogs can get worms, ticks and fleas, but it can be prevented by keeping their _____ up to date. The same as humans, your dog also needs a brush for their coat, ears must get cleaned and their _____ must be trimmed. Give your dog a warm, _____, and safe place to sleep. Did you know you can get your dog a _____ so that when it goes missing, it can easily be identified by us or a vet?

ADOPT A PET

